This was an excellent seminar—the best one, truly, I've been to. I hadn't found a way—until now—to be a fair and effective disciplinarian. I so appreciated the seminar—it was truly a gift.

Amanda Beeson, French Teacher

I was thinking about retiring, but after attending the seminar, I have hope, and my love for teaching has been rekindled. Thank you so much!

Judy Sweeney, Elementary Teacher

Seminar CONTENT

Decrease Discipline Challenges

- Learn why the traditional approach to classroom rules doesn't work, and what to do instead
- Discover the secret to keep students from constantly testing your limits
- Determine how to effectively deal with students who don't come to school ready to learn
- How to teach students to correct their own behavior
- Reduce your discipline paperwork to almost nothing

Minimize Interruptions

- Learn how to eliminate warnings and repeated requests
- Discover which misbehaviors to correct, and which to leave alone
- How to increase student participation and decrease discipline problems
- Create effective classroom routines to minimize interruptions and increase instructional time

Optimize Your Environment for Success

- Discover the one characteristic you MUST have when interacting with students (or it's all over)
- Learn how to connect with every student, even in today's overcrowded situations
- Discover the most important things to consider when setting up your classroom for optimal learning

And much more...
